

The Vote of the Lords, and Commons, upon the Propositions made by divers worthy and well affected persons, for the speedie
and effectuall reducing of the Kingdome of Ireland.

He Lords and Commons, taking into their serious considerations, as well the necessity of a speedy reducing of the Rebels of IRELAND, to their due Obedience, as also the great summes of money that the COMMONS of this Realme have of late paid, for the publique, and necessary
affaires of the Kingdome, whereof the Lords and Commons are very sensible; and desirous to embrace all good and honorable wayes, tending to his Majesties greatnesse, and profit, the settling of that Realme, and the ease of his Majesties Subjects of England: And whereas divers worthy and well affected persons, perceiving that many Millions of Acres of the Rebells Lands of that Kingdome, which go under the name of profitable Lands, will be confiscate, and to be disposed of, and that in case two Millions and a halfe of those Acres, to bee equally taken out of the foure Provinces of that Kingdome, may be allotted for the satisfaction of such persons as shall disburse any summes of money for the reducing of the Rebells there, would effectually accomplish the same, have made these Propositions ensuing.

First, That two Millions and a halfe of those Acres may be assigned, allotted, and divided amongst them, after this Proportion. Viz.

	£ 200 li.	1000 Acres in Ulster .
For each Ad-	£ 300	1000 Acres in Conaght .
venture of	£ 450	1000 Acres in Munster .
	£ 600	1000 Acres in Leinster .

All according to the English measure, and consisting of Meadow, Arable, and profitable pasture; The Bogs, Woods, and barren Mountains being cast

cast in, over and above; These two Millions and a halfe of Acres to be holden in free, and common Soccage of the King, as of his Castle of Dublin.

2. That, out of those two millions and an halfe of Acres, a constant rent shall be reserved to the Crowne of England, after this proportion, viz.

Out of each Acre thereof in { Ulster — 1^d.
Connaght — 1^{ob}.
Munster — 1j^d. 4.
Leinster — 1j^d.

Wherby his Majesties Revenue out of those lands will be much improved, besides the advantages that he will have by the comming to his hands of all other the lands of the Rebels, and their personall estates, without any charge unto his Majestie.

3. That for the erecting of Mannors, settling of wastes and commons, maintaining of preaching Ministers, creating of Corporations, and regulating of the severall Plantations, one or more Commissions be hereafter granted by Authoritie of Parliament.

4 That moneies for these great occasions may be the more speedily advanced, All the Undertakers in the Citie of London, and within twentie miles distant thereof, shall under-write their severall summes before the twentieth day of March, 1641. And all within 60. miles of London, before the first day of April, 1642. And the rest of the Kingdome before the first day of May, 1642.

5. That the severall summes, to bee under written, shall be paid in at foure payments, vizt. one fourth part within ten dayes after such under-writing; And the other three parts at three moneths, 3. moneths, and three moneths, all to be paid in the Chamber of London.

6. That, for the better securing of the said severall summes accordingly, Every one that doth so underwrite shall, at the time of his subscription, pay downe the twentieth part of the totall summe that shall be by him then under-written.

And in case that the residue of his first fourth part be not paid in, to such person or persons as shall be appointed to receive the same, within the ten dayes before limited; Then such party shall not onely forfeit the twentieth part of the summe totall, formerly deposited, but so much more of his first fourth payment to be added thereunto as shall make up the one moitie of the sayd first payment. And if the same person shall fail in any other of the three payments, he shall then forfeit his entire first fourth part, and all the benefit of his subscription, which forfeiture shall accrue to the common benefit of the rest of the undertakers.

The Lords and Commons, upon due and mature deliberation of these propositions, have approved of

of them, and given their consent unto the same,
and will become humble Petitioners to his Majestie, for his Royall approbation thereof, and that hereafter he will be pleased, upon the humble sute of both Houses of Parliament, to give his Royall assent unto such Bills as they shall tender unto him, for the settling of those Propositions, and all other things
necessarie, conducing
thereunto.

FINIS.
